

May 31, 2007

The Honorable William Adolph Jr.
Pennsylvania House of Representatives
110 Ryan Office Building
P. O. Box 202165
Harrisburg, PA 17120

Dear Representative Adolph:

In March, we launched Pre-K Today – a broad-based statewide non-partisan campaign to secure dedicated funding in the 2007-2008 state budget for voluntary, high-quality pre-kindergarten programs. Pre-K Today supports the Governor's $75 million proposal to create Pre-K Counts as a means to assure that Pennsylvania's children enter school ready to learn and prepared to succeed.

Strong support for state investments in pre-K exists in every community in Pennsylvania. Since March, Pre-K Today supporters logged over 600 visits with members of the Pennsylvania House and Senate to respectfully urge support for dedicated pre-K funds in the 2007-2008 state budget. No doubt, you have heard from and met with one or more constituents on this important issue.

Pre-K Today supporters have held over two dozen local legislative briefing events across the Commonwealth. Many state legislators participated in these events and heard first-hand from community leaders, business leaders, teachers, parents and child care providers about the many benefits of pre-K for children, their families and their communities. An example of one of these leaders is Jim Rohr, Chairman and CEO of PNC Financial Services Group. Mr. Rohr and his corporation are strong supporters of high-quality pre-K as both an education and economic development strategy.

Research overwhelmingly backs public investments in high-quality pre-K – investments that can yield short-term education savings ranging from $0.78 to $1.16 for every $1 invested, and long-term public savings as high as $17 for every $1 invested. Pre-K Today shared weekly emails to members of the General Assembly highlighting the research that backs this important investment.

Since March, newspapers across the state have editorialized in favor of investing state dollars in high-quality pre-K. After examining the research base, the strong support across varied constituencies, newspapers are calling for the General Assembly to fund Pre-K Counts. Examples include:

- Although the Legislature has several major funding issues on its plate, this one is a no-brainer. Pittsburgh Post Gazette
- Anyone who still wants to ask how Pennsylvania can afford this $75 million, think again. We can't afford not to do it. Erie Times-News
- This year the state Legislature has a chance to extend its vision across generations, by embracing a substantial expansion in pre-kindergarten education with a $75 million funding increase. Scranton Times-Tribune
- The state Legislature should show its recognition of the importance of pre-K with full funding of the governor's request. Allentown Morning-Call

Support for Pre-K is present everywhere in Pennsylvania – in the media, among community and business leaders, and in the early care and education arenas. The support is backed up by a strong research base. Now, it is time for the General Assembly to take action. As members of Pre-K Today, we respectfully urge you to support the proposal to invest $75 million in the state budget to provide approximately 11,000 3- and 4-year-olds with voluntary, high-quality pre-K delivered through a mixed service delivery system in which all providers comply with State Board of Education pre-K regulations and the state's early learning standards.

We understand that this is a very difficult budget season. The Commonwealth must prioritize its investments and spend taxpayers' dollars wisely. We are confident that when the benefits to students, communities and the Commonwealth as a whole are taken into consideration, investing in high-quality pre-K should be at the top of the list of priorities for the 2007-2008 budget.

Let's not wait another day to move forward with investments that have been unequivocally proven to secure a better future for our students, our schools, our communities and the Commonwealth as a whole.
